

Admission Fee

As Nowgong College is a public institution, the admission fee for the Integrated B.A-B.Ed program is determined and periodically revised by the Government of Assam. The fee structure is set in accordance with the guidelines provided by the state government, ensuring that it remains affordable and accessible to all eligible students. The college adheres to these regulations and updates the fee details as per the official notifications issued by the government.